Nearly Satisfied

The cruise is really charming, you enjoy 100% of the bay and avoid the crowd of other boats. Your trip can be more flexible and adjusted to your will. The food is excellent, everything fresh very good quality, well quantity and cooked at the moment. We saw with our eyes the crew purchasing fish to the local fishers. We chose the option of vietnamese food all the time. The boat has a very good size and is very comfortable and the 3 days 2 nights route is perfect to enjoy of Ha Long Bay. The drinks are not include but the price is affordable minus for the wine which should be a little bit much cheaper. The breakfast is very simple, we missed to have eggs, or even Pho or vietnamese food also we asked for some more juice and the waiter told us "NO"...I didn't know that the juice is so expensive in Vietnam! The crew and the guide was in general correct but not so warm as vietnamese people are. The cleanliness of the boat is not enough, they don't clean deeply from one client to other client. The AC can not work during the day hours. Ha Long Bay is a wonderful of the world but if the pressure continue like now I expect that after 5 years will be destroid, there are now more than 600 touristic boats and you see garbage and waste everywhere.
